Reading To Learn (and Enjoy)

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." (Dr Seuss, I Can Read With My Eyes Shut)

Dr Seuss is a wise doctor indeed and this quote from one of his many loved children's books articulates succinctly why reading is so important to our lives and to our learning. As teachers and parents we know well how books and other reading material provide access to ideas and knowledge beyond our immediate experiences. According to research into adolescents and reading conducted by Associate Professor Jacqueline Manuel (Sydney University), 'a student's level of reading accomplishment directly influences the quality and nature of his or her entire school and post-school life.'¹ We also know that one of the best predictors of achievement in the HSC is a student's reading level in Year 7. However, the differences in the complexity of reading material, compared to primary school and from subject to subject, and the amount of time available to students for sustained reading in class result in a slowed momentum in reading growth for some students when they reach high school.

Manuel's research reminds us that in primary school, the focus is learning to read, while in high school this focus shifts to reading to learn. Hence, one of the two aspects of reading literacy currently being addressed through teacher professional learning at Killara High School is developing teachers' skills in teaching 'reading for meaning' so students can more readily understand complex factual texts such as text books, newspaper and journal articles.

The second aspect of our reading focus is being managed by the English faculty in association with our academic partner, Dr Jen Scott Curwood and the school's librarians. In addition to encouraging teachers to share their reading interests with students, English teachers are experimenting with using technology to publicise and share students' favourite books and encourage talk about ideas in books. Again, educational research shows that we make meaning from texts by thinking and talking about them. Talking about ideas helps students to 'organise and clarify their thinking and develop conceptual frameworks that make further learning possible.'² So, by encouraging students to talk about what they read using online discussion boards, blogs and videos, greater engagement with texts will ensue. Such discussion forums have the added benefit of students sharing suggestions on what to read.

To improve reading skills we must practise by reading regularly and to improve our learning about language and the world, we must read widely. Teachers, librarians and parents can all make suggestions about books our teenagers might like to read. Students can also access reading lists on epscohost through the school's intranet page. (Click on KHS Calendars & FAQs, click on Periodicals On-Line : epscohost, Login – ID f928108, password: password).

In the words of Australian children's author, Jackie French, 'reading is good for you - it helps you do better in everything from exams to explaining the universe. But that isn't why we read. We read because it's fun.'

Happy reading.

Student Progress Review Evenings 2012

Each year Killara High School schedules three student progress review meetings when parents can speak with teachers about their child's learning progress before too much of the year has passed.

This year the meetings will be held on:

Monday, 2nd April – Term 1 Week 11 (Yrs 7 & 12)

Tuesday, 24th April – Term 2 Week 1 (Yrs 8 - 11)

Wednesday, 9th May – Term 2 Week 3 (Yrs 8 - 11)

We hope parents can take advantage of this opportunity to discuss with teachers their children's progress to date.

Parents and students will have been sent an email invitation allowing them access to the new computerized booking system provided by the P&C. This enables you to indicate your availability for a meeting and to indicate which of your children's teachers you would like to see. If you have not received an email invitation, please contact the school on 9498 3722.

Interviews can be scheduled between the hours of 4.00pm and 8.00pm. However, please be aware that teachers will not be available for the entire period of four hours. They need a break at some stage during the evening or may not be available for the entire time.

Please note –

- The venue for all interviews will be the Kerrabee Centre hall. Signs around the walls of the hall will indicate course/ faculty locations and signs on tables will indicate locations of individual teachers.

- Interviews are of five minutes duration. Parents and teachers are asked to restrict their discussion to that time in fairness to all families seeking interviews. If teachers and/or parents feel the need to discuss matters further, another mutually convenient time should be arranged.

- Interviews must be prearranged through the computerized booking system. To drop in on the off chance of speaking to a teacher can prove very frustrating to those with appointments. Please give consideration to the needs of other parents and the staff during these evenings.

Please take advantage of this opportunity to meet with the school staff to discuss your child's progress. Year Advisers, a School Counsellor, Careers Adviser and the Support Teacher Learning Assistance will also be present. A translation service can also be made available through the school.

Model United Nations Competition (MUNA) 2012

This year Killara High School entered two teams into the Model United Nations competition (MUNA) for the Northern Sydney region. It was held at Knox Grammar School on Saturday 24th and Sunday 25th March.

The MUNA competition is organised by the Rotary Club of Wahroonga. At the competition the delegates get to debate six resolutions and form voting blocks.

The boys' team was made up of Thomas Batchelor, David Nouri and Curtis Chan. They were given the country of Indonesia. The boys really got into the spirit of the competition and both David and Thomas were lucky enough to speak to their resolutions. The girls' team of Sandy Lian, Sabina Bertuzzi and Anja Sauer represented the country of Denmark.

The girls went all out with their traditional dress and really looked the part. Sandy was lucky enough to speak to her prepared resolution and made a very impressive effort when communicating Denmark's position on Whaling.

Both teams utilised the diplomatic communication channels. This allowed teams to communicate between each other and negotiate changes or amendments to the resolutions. The girls took the initiative and proposed an amendment to a resolution on Euthanasia. This meant Anja was able to interweave her prepared speech into the amendment.

The event was a lot of fun and a great opportunity for students to discuss international affairs.

Drama Update

We had a fantastic turn-out for our first Theatresports night earlier this Term. The crowd enjoyed the numerous moments of side-splitting humour and were literally showered with lollies. I'd like to thank Mr Williams for his fantastic organisation and to Ninah Kopel and Alannah Colman from Year 12 Drama for being outstanding hosts. The winners for the night were the Year 12 team comprising Hannah Tait, Maggie Farahbakht, Charles An and David Wiernik.

The Year 9 team were very close runners up, and gave the Year 12 team a run for their money. We have entered our winners into the Improv Australia Inter-School Competition, and our first round will be on Friday 4th May at Saint Ignatius, Riverview, at 7pm. We would love to have supporters come and cheer on our students. More information to follow!

Congratulations to Jordan Hare and Jemma Sully-Harries (Year 9) for getting a call-back audition for the Year 9 State Drama Ensemble, run by the Arts Unit in Stanmore. Jordan Hare was successful in obtaining a position in this Ensemble, which is extremely exciting! Congratulations also to David Wiernik and Charles An (Year 12) for gaining the prestigious titles of Griffin Theatre Ambassadors. These two boys will participate in a range of Drama-based workshops at The Stables and will also see shows for free with this exciting and innovative Australian theatre company.

Canteen Update for Term 1

The canteen has been very popular in Term 1 and thanks to Carolyn, Pam and all the volunteers, we have managed to keep everyone fed and happy.

The weather has played havoc with menu selection, on most days, as one needs to guess whether it will turn freezing or the sudden heat will mean huge demand for cold foods like sushi.

Some updates that have occurred recently are:

Drinks

No diet drinks sold. The dangers of Aspartame are well documented.

Powerade (sports drink) only sold on Thursday (sports day).

Snacks

Nuggets and Mammee noodles are no longer sold. Florida Nuggets and noodles are made in China and Malaysia and parents requested that we not sell items where country of manufacture had different standards to Australia.

Salads

Caesar salads, fruit salads and watermelon are now available.

Hot Food

Pizza Pies are new and selling very well.

Cold Food

Chicken rice paper wraps have been introduced and are proving to be popular.

Sushi update

It is so difficult to order the correct number of sushi as we prefer to run out than have sushi left over. Sushi will expire after 2 days but we felt that the quality was not as good on Day 2 so made the decision to only sell sushi on the day it was made. We have increased our daily order so that even if we have some over, at least we are satisfying more students.

Healthy Kids Expo

Last week I attended the Healthy Kids Expo at Sydney Olympic Park. The range of suppliers was extensive – from drinks to food to "green" packaging and it was most useful to taste the wares. I have arranged for some taste testers to trial the gluten free snacks that I brought back.

The balance of the samples and ideas plus winter menu options will be discussed when we have our Canteen Meeting early next term. The date will be published in the newsletter if anyone would like to attend.

Feedback from students, parents and teachers is encouraged and hence we will be placing a feedback box in the canteen – just around the corner from the door. We would like to hear what you enjoy and what you would like to see – bearing in mind that we do not have a chef or a kitchen.

Daily preparation and serving is done by volunteers so please remember that if your child frequents the canteen – we would love more volunteers so we can prepare more tasty foods and serve students quicker. (Canteen phone is 9498-6740).

Have a happy, healthy holiday.

Back to School Adjustments

Whilst the Facebook photos of your friends' children may indicate otherwise, the transition back to school can involve lots of adjustments and challenges for both children and parents. Whilst change is a constant, we are all creatures of habit and adjusting to change can be quite stressful and also result in concerning behaviours, which if unaddressed, can become more problematic.

Of course, problems are not usually confined to the children in the family and frequently the stress and anxiety involved in dealing with one unhappy family member impacts on everyone.

The Parent Line Counselling team has compiled strategies to help families in adjusting to change and managing some of the challenges associated with difficult transition periods.
