Anzac Day Assembly

Our observation of ANZAC Day last week was particularly significant, marking the 100th anniversary of the beginning of the Gallipoli campaign in World War I. It was also enhanced by a very moving occasional address from Year 12 student, Ziheng Zhan. Ziheng's speech is reproduced here:

After eight hours of travelling on the sea having a hasty breakfast, a cup of tea and a piece of biscuit, on 25 April 1915 at 4:30am, the Anzacs were excited that they could finally fight. For some it would be their last meal. But what welcomed them was a well-defended beach. Hours later the sun rose up on the Gallipoli peninsula, revealing the rough terrain that would become the grave of an estimated 2300 Anzacs on that day. They were so eager to fight, but their excited smiles were never to be seen again.

A cup of tea, A piece of biscuit, A chance to see war, A life lost on the coast...

For the remaining Anzacs, dying was an immediate reality. On the first night they found out that they were facing an undeniable life threat and a horrible hell like scene.

The Anzacs did not lose heart! Give up! Quit!

They dug furiously; building trenches which could be their last hope of survival, their thoughts surely lingered on parents that they might never see again, on sweethearts they may never marry, on dreams that may never come true.

The battle at Gallipoli might be the most ill-prepared military mission ever. Australia lost thousands of men only to retreat miserably months later but yet, 100 years later on 25 April it still draws the nation together.

We come here today to remember those brave men, for their fighting and their legend, but how much do we understand, and how will we ever understand?

In the modern era of consumerism, material values and technology overload, we cannot begin to imagine the bravery that one hundred years ago the Anzacs had to face. Anzac Day is here to remind us that war is not just a fuzzy black and white photo you glance at in history class. For me, I see the willingness of sacrificing oneself for a better life for others. The moment when Andrew Fisher promised to help Great Britain to last man and our last shilling; the moment when Simpson and his donkey were saving lives under bombardment, the moment when hundreds and thousands of mothers waited in empty houses and cried when the tragic news arrived, Australians made a sacrifice. It was that sacrifice as a nation, as a family and as individuals one hundred years ago on that day that has defined the Anzac spirit since.

However, there is more to it. In the entire Gallipoli campaign over 8,000 Australians and 2,400 New Zealanders died. We wrote songs and poems about the legend and pay our respects to the Anzacs, but we must not fail to mention the 80,000 Turks who died defending their homeland at the same time.

We realise that they deserve our consideration; there were no 'bad guys' but the defenders no different to our soldiers, heroes of their country. As the Australians and the Turks faced each other over the months, a mutual respect grew and by the end of the conflict and beyond, there was no bitterness between the two countries. That mutual respect is still there today as the Turks long ago renamed the Anzac landing site Anzac Cove – in tribute to their one-time enemy.

Kemal Mustafa who led the Turkish force at Gallipoli, expressed his sentiments on the inscription placed on a memorial arch erected at Anzac Cove:

"those heroes who shed their blood and lost their lives... You are now lying in the soil of a friendly country. Therefore rest in peace... After having lost their lives on this land, they have become our sons as well."

As this year is the centenary of the Gallipoli landing, after one hundred years, we have seen too much bloodshed and unnecessary death. If today we are to learn anything it should be this: set aside our differences, put down our prejudice, our anger, and our hatred. Because today is not a day to glorify war, we remember the Anzac spirit but condemn war. Today is a day to reflect, to think, to give respect to those who are protecting us right now and with poignant remembrance to commemorate and pay respect to those fought for their nation.

From the Anzacs landing 100 years ago through to those fighting in more recent conflicts, we have to thank all Australians who have made a sacrifice to enable us to enjoy a free and peaceful life and for showing us what it means to be proud.

Lest we forget.

What a fitting tribute to the men and women who gave so much for us. Thank you to, Dylan Mackey who performed The Last Post and The Rouse, and Kristen Bergersen and Yoon Choi provided the musical items. Their contributions helped us reflect, and give thanks.

Our thanks go also to Mr Michael Askey and Mr Malcolm Whitney of the Roseville Sub-Branch of the RSL, who were our special guests, and to Ms Paula Collins for her organisation of the event.

Student Progress Review Meetings 2015

Each year Killara High School schedules three student progress review meetings when parents can speak with teachers about their child's learning progress before too much of the year has passed.

The Student Progress Review meetings session for Years 9 and 12 in Week 4 of Term 2 is on Monday 11 May.

We hope parents can take advantage of this opportunity to discuss with teachers their children's progress to date.

Interview Bookings

On 28 April, parents of students in Years 9 and 12 received an email invitation allowing them access to the computerised booking system. This enables parents to indicate their availability for a meeting and to indicate which of their child's teachers they would like to see. It is important that parents complete this process before 3.00pm Monday 4 May.

Interviews between parents and the nominated teachers will then be scheduled between the hours of 3.30pm and 8.00pm taking into account parent and teacher availability.

The schedule of interviews will be open for parent access on 5 May so that parents may print out their schedule. Some limited adjustments of appointments may be possible depending on the availability of teachers. This access will close again on 9 May at 3.00pm.

PLEASE NOTE –

- The system does not notify you of your appointment schedule. You must log on between, 5 May – 11 May to download your interview appointments.

- The venue for all interviews will be the Kerrabee Centre hall. Signs around the walls of the hall will indicate course/ faculty locations and signs on tables will indicate locations of individual teachers.

- Interviews are of five minutes duration. Parents and teachers are asked to restrict their discussion to that time in fairness to all families seeking interviews. If teachers and/or parents feel the need to discuss matters further, another mutually convenient time should be arranged.

- Interviews must be prearranged. To drop in on the off chance of speaking to a teacher can prove very frustrating to those with appointments and such requests may not be able to be accommodated. Please give consideration to the needs of other parents and the staff during these evenings.

Please take advantage of these opportunities to meet with the school staff to discuss your child's progress. Year Advisers and a School Counsellor will also be present. A translation service can also be made available through the school. Please notify the office by email (Killara-h.school@det.nsw.edu.au) if you require this service. You will need to indicate language required and approximate times of interviews.

The Student Progress Review Meetings scheduled for Term 2 are:

Years 9 and 12 - Monday 11 May (Week 4)

Years 8 and 10 - Tuesday 9 June (Week 8)

Concert Bands 1 and 2

Well done CB1 and CB2 on a great Easter weekend of music making.

Each band had to prepare a Hymn, March, and a Test piece that all bands in their section performed and an 'Own Choice'.

Both bands achieved fantastic results, with CB2 gaining an equal 6 out of 12 competing with independent schools, Community Youth bands and selective schools.

This was a particularly good result considering that our band had only played together during Term 1.

The students braved the wet and windy weather but inside the Seymour Centre there was an exciting atmosphere, reminding us of the worthwhile nature of these events.

To perform on a great stage with some of the biggest audiences I've seen in a competition was a thrill for me as a teacher, and for the kids. It was definitely the best place to be on Easter Saturday 2015.

CB1 won their test piece but narrowly missed out on keeping the winners plaque by only 2 points.

There is always next time. Adelaide 2016!

Congratulations KHS Chinese Beginners HSC Class of 2014

We are thrilled to congratulate the 7 students who completed the HSC Beginners Chinese course in last year's HSC. Joshua Lee was placed fourth in the state and three other students also gained Band 6 results. A further two students gained Band 5 results.

Chinese Beginners is an HSC Chinese Mandarin language course that is suitable for students who have never studied Chinese before, or who completed Year 8 Chinese at KHS. Past students of Beginners Chinese have found it to be a very useful course that focuses on practical language readily usable both in our local community and in China. Chinese grammar resembles English in word order and once students learn about pronunciation and use of tones, progress is rapid. Students will learn to read and write about 150 Chinese characters.

Year 8 Chinese Culture Workshop

On the last day of Term 1 2015, the Year 8 Chinese class participated in a Chinese Culture workshop focusing on paper cutting and Chinese Gongfu (martial arts). Students were instructed by visiting Chinese experts. This experience complemented language and culture instruction in class and was very much enjoyed by the students.

Higher School Certificate and Stage 5 Course Information Meetings for Parents of Years 8 and 10 Students

The time for Year 8 and Year 10 course selections for 2016 is upon us.

Information sessions for parents of students in Year 8 and 10 will be held on:

Tuesday 19 May 2015 in the Kerrabee Theatre
Year 8 at 6.00pm and Year 10 at 6.45pm

In order to provide students and parents with comprehensive information to assist in making decisions about programs of study for Year 9 and Year 11 2016, special booklets are being prepared and will be distributed to students prior to the information evening.

These booklets contain a wealth of general information about Higher School Certificate and Stage 5 course requirements as well as a range of programs of study and details about all subjects on offer to students. Killara High School is able to offer students a very broad range of courses for both the Higher School Certificate and Stage 5.

The meetings on Tuesday 19 May will provide parents and students with further details about NSW Board of Studies, and Teaching and Educational Standards (BOSTES) requirements for the awards of the Record of School Achievement and Higher School Certificate. All faculties will have representatives available at the evening meeting to provide additional information about courses and answers to questions you might have.

Students are asked to choose their courses carefully in consultation with parents and teachers. Year 8 students choose three electives to study in Year 9. Year 10 students choose 10 units (most subjects are equal to 2 units) in addition to the compulsory 2 units of English. Students are always advised to make their choices based on their interests and talents.

For Year 10, all students will be interviewed by their Year Advisers prior to finalising their course selections for their senior program of study on June 11 and 12 2015. Killara High School provides a supportive consultation process to ensure all students make choices that will best suit their individual needs.

Both Year 8 and Year 10 students will be required to return their selection forms before the end of Term 2.

Havel, Geoff. Dropping in

Three mates, one beat-up old couch, a couple of skateboards, and a really steep hill....what could possibly go wrong?

Hocking, Amanda. Frostfire

A return to the world of the Trylle series. Bryn Aven is determined to gain status amongst the Kanin, the most powerful of the hidden tribes. But as a half-blood, winning respect is a huge challenge. Bryn's almost-human community distrusts people. She has just one goal to get ahead: to join elite guard protecting the Kanin royal family.

Hoyle, Tom. Spiders

'Let me out! Please, please, let me go. I'll do anything.' The girl thumped hard on the glass. 'Please!' They wanted her to be happy, but they wouldn't let her go. She had to stay until they all could make the journey...

Ishiguro, Kazuo. The Buried Giant
The Buried Giant begins as a couple, Axl and Beatrice, set off across a troubled land of mist and rain in the hope of finding a son they have not seen for years. They expect to face many hazards – some strange and other-worldly – but they cannot yet foresee how their journey will reveal to them dark and forgotten corners of their love for one another.

Kiernan, Celine. Resonance
Ireland, 1890: two ruthless immortals prowl the theatre district in search of food for their “Angel”. Ancient, pitiless and caring for none but their own twisted family, they will stop at nothing to maintain their grip on life. A seamstress, the young man who loves her and a penniless American magician soon find themselves imprisoned in a snow-bound country estate, the latest additions to the family’s warped collection. Here, they are nothing but food, nothing but entertainment, and soon they will be nothing at all. Far from their homes and fighting for survival, Tina, Joe and Harry will come to understand that far more is at stake than their lives.

Marney, Ellie. Every move
Rachel Watts is having a hard time forgetting about her near-death experience in London. The nightmares don’t help. Nor does her boyfriend, James Mycroft, who’s obsessed with piecing the puzzle together and discovering the true identity of the mysterious Mr Wild.

Their forbidden romance exposed, Sydney and Adrian find themselves facing the wrath of both the Alchemists and the Moroi in this electrifying conclusion to Richelle Mead’s bestselling Bloodlines series.

Niven, Jennifer. All the bright places
They meet on the ledge of the school bell tower, and so their story begins. It’s only together they can be themselves... But, as Violet’s world grows, Finch’s begins to shrink. How far will Violet go to save the boy she has come to love?

Nowra, Louis. Prince of Afghanistan
Black parachutes fall from the sky – young soldiers and a dog, on a rescue mission to a remote part of Afghanistan. But the mission ends in chaos, and Mark and Prince embark on a perilous journey through enemy territory. Will they make it back to base? All they have is each other. All they can do is survive, today, tomorrow and the next day.
